THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE, LLC'S BARRY HULL, M.D., F.A.A.F.P., NAMED BOARD-CERTIFIED LIPID EXPERT

ATLANTA, GA, December 29, 2005 – The American Board of Clinical Lipidology certified Peachtree City's Barry Hull, M.D. as a Diplomat last month. Dr. Hull has been a practicing lipid specialist for three years, and he just passed the first ever lipid board examination. He is one of only two board-certified lipid specialists in the Atlanta Metro area as well as the state of Georgia.

Lipidology is the focus on prevention of morbidity and mortality from atherosclerotic cardiovascular disease through the management of cholesterol (lipids), blood pressure, and blood sugar (including diabetes and the metabolic syndrome), as well as other usual and unusual risk factors.

"Since heart disease is the number one cause of death in the United States, I wanted to learn as much as possible about how I could help my patients prevent heart disease," explains Dr. Hull. "There are so many factors involved in good cardiovascular health, and they all should be taken into consideration when preventing and/or treating heart disease."

Dr. Hull is a board certified family medicine specialist and a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Practice at The Doctor's Office, LLC in Peachtree City, Georgia. In addition to his board certified sub-specialty of Lipidology, he is also certified by the Neuroscience Education Institute as a Master Psychopharmacologist.
